Conditions:

*English lessons are Junior Holiday English and will be mixed levels of proficiency and in the case of more than 21 students they will be organised according to students' assessed English levels. However, flexibility may be required, and students must agree to potential adjustments in class placement, and students must accept this condition upon enrolment.

*Each class has a maximum of 20 students, though this may change in special cases and students must accept this upon enrolment.

*Daily schedule (Mon–Fri) and program details may change; venues may be adjusted for operational or weather reasons.

*Public transport costs are not included in the programme fees. While most activities do not require public transport, certain activities do. For these occasions, students must carry a valid Go Card or purchase a single-use ticket.
